When I first met you (You)
It was a cold cloudy day (day)
I looked over and saw you say
Hello...oooh, ooh
And I couldn't help but stare (but stare)
It was like an angels voice (Voice)
You drew me in with your hello
Yeah, you got me there

The tone of your voice (your voice)
Makes it feel clear (clear)
You always smile and your so good
A perfect combination
I can't help myself (myself)
You're patient with me (with me)
And you always see
On the good sides of everything

And I can't help but smile
Even when I'm gone for awhile
I always think of you
And the day you said:

Hello, hello, hello
You had me at hello
I just like to let it show
That I wanna be with you
Hello, hello, hello
I like how you are with me
You like me for who I am
I wanna look back on the day
When you had me at hello
It doesn't feel like long ago
Seems like just yesterday
When we saw each other
And said hello, helloooooo

Looking in the mirror
Your face is a reflection
Of your personality
What a perfect match

You never ditch me for someone
Instead you invite me to them
You always make good use of your time
Even when it's not right

You make me feel comfortable
To open up, oh
I never wanted pain
And I'm glad I never got it
Your face always shines
Even in the moon light
Amazes me every time
Oh, every time

And I can't help but smile
Even when I'm gone for awhile
I always think of you (oh)
And the day you said:

Hello, hello, hello
You had me at hello
I just like to let it show
That I wanna be with you
Hello, hello, hello
I like how you are with me
You like me for who I am
I wanna look back on the day
When you had me at hello
It doesn't feel like long ago
Seems like just yesterday
When we saw each other
And said hello, helloooooo

And I knew from the moment
That you could be the one
When you said that word to me
Looking in to your eyes
I would like to stay
There is no other way
Lit up, like a spark
In the sky, in the sky

You got me at hello, hello
Waited for someone like you
To just come around
Can't be brought down
You got me at hello, helloooo
Like how you spend your time with me
Now I know who you are
If it weren't for that hello
Helloooooooooo

How many years was it ago?
Just yesterday, I
Stared in to your eyes
You got me at hello
Oooooooooooooooooohhh
Yeah, yeah

When you had me at hello oh-oh
No it doesn't feel like long ago
Seems like just yesterday
When we saw each other
And I remember you saying...
(Hello)
