Hey love, don't be afraid
To stay until tomorrow
Lover's dawn is waiting
Just this side of day
If you thought I loved you yesterday
I'll love you more than that tomorrow

Hey love, don't be afraid
To hear the songs of morning
Birds will sing them
As they're calling up the day
If I sang to you yesterday
I'll sing more than that tomorrow

If it should happen that you come to me
In the night we share our hearts
Whatever it is that you done to me
Between you and me, can't be undone

If I should understand
Just why I need you by me
Then I would know the reasons
For the sad songs of morning
'Cause if I wanted you yesterday
And if in the night
We shared our hearts
Whatever it is that you done to me
Between you and me, can't be undone

{Repeat 1st verse}

If you thought I loved you yesterday
I'll love you more than that tomorrow
