Gimme some more slack on this rope
I run your boney ass throat over in a zodiac boat 46 degrees north, 6 degrees east
The large hadron collider gave birth to a beast
That speaks, they quote my speech Vocal motifs over dope beats, all lyricists know me!
That's why the industry's debunking my lyrics With digital trunking equipment, they don't want you to listen!
The ripper's language won't appeal to the masses because they look past it Only the masters know the seal of the scarab
Some humans are born average based off environmental circumstances
You organic piece of shit, you substandard
But do not be embarrassed by your underdeveloped status
It's up to you to find the right questions and ask it Research leads to results sometimes we find meaning after
Other times they're just meaningless babblers Don't believe these rappers, fake unbelievable bastards
Comet Elenin is coming straight at us, don't believe
NASA
Take matters into your own hands
Stop being slow and acting like hoes, get with the fcking program
Hip Hop is the greatest genre known to man
If we focus, the poetry is so advanced We can overthrow any plan and control man
You got soul? Let's Jam! Lyrical Law I'm the Canibus
Man
What's the buying-minimum? 88 sales, program and the number of stores, I don't care no more This is Lyrical Law Noir hardcore raw Metaphors for you and yours
You can't say you wasn't warned!
Thousands of bars, them dummies couldn't stomach
my bars
They rather conform, they throwing up their pompoms
You don't wanna wrestle with Armstrong

We sever blood vessels tryna mess with the God's poem
Damage any motherfucking beat that I rhyme on Connect to the God's thoughts, project your iPod, I grind hard
Intellectual hardboard, take it back to Hip Hop Star Wars
Grunting like a pack of wild boars
Power source Lyrical Law my bomb squad full force Call 'em off we got too much torque Nitrous Oxide Bars pull a bull off course Pitch fork to you neck just to prove I'm raw Iron horse, smack DVD, battle rap boss Slap you with the flat part of the sword, now you back for more Passing yourself off like a rap star
But you support whack bars that's why rap is lost -- fact!
You a cool j crack whore,
you snitch like police Labradors try'na sniff out sasquatch

Man up, no more lip-service and backwalls
Stand up! I'ma break off you're backpulse Door's hammer crack jaws, attack ya'll, fracture your skull
Mountain man axe to your loins
Self-employed like Donald Goines, task on steroids
I don't fall for deceptions or decoys
I'm a beast and I'm clairvoyant
Your soil gon tear the beat up whether or not you appear on it Double trouble dear promise fuck you and your comets
The chairman and Lyrical Law will be honoured
The last man standing, after the internet is abandoned
James Cameron with a gamma ray cannon
The cops brainwashed Hiphop
And they came from Saturn, they were the first alien race of rappers
They landed in North-Africa they teeth be gnashing They names look like acronyms, they released the kraken,
They live in underground cabins
They sliver fast through the inner-earth labyrinth
They move in S-patterns though deep planet chasms
I chase 'em and trap 'em, detailing the action
For try'na desecrate the Sabbath of the lyrical master, faggots
I layed them on top of each other like ?
They spacecraft look like the Eiffel tower in Paris
They pray for my downfall and orchestrated hiphop's imbalance

They underestimated my talent
I hold the globe up like Atlas
They lied about Canibus -- ask 'em
I'm the world's greatest motherfucking rapper!
They slandered my character through the public propaganda
They tell the people I'm Dr. Doppelganger
They ask me shit, did they know I'm not gon answer Extinction level event, they can't stop the disaster Cocksucker stop the camera, 'cause you know that I'm a miserable bastard
I crack lens, brake microchips and melt plastic
You Canibus? - Who's asking?
That's Captain Cold Crush toy ou maggot, You a lyrical has-been
Lyrical Law's a classic they can't get past it
The beats, the rhymes, the features, every single facet
Lyrical Law's a classic they can't get past it They beats, the rhymes, the features, every single facet
The microphone assassin 'bout to get at 'em
The Dragon of Judah breath, fire 'til its last breath Full battle-rapper in action lyrical metal jackets Coming threw, with several new attachments Computers is crashing, hackers is laughing Rapid eye movement, try to keep up with the captain, what's happening?
