[Canibus] Do you think that the powers that be Are goin' to let you do what you want to do for eternity? Of course you don't, so what do you fear? Why you spazzin' out, why you so scared? Everybody wanna be first, nobody wants to be last Do you think a God that created this would watch all of us die while others just laugh? What happens when the money system crash? And there's no more value in the cash? You gon' suck dick and sell ass? You gon' try to fight back wit' ya hands? You probably gon' change your money into gold You gon' use that to try and buy soul Buy some drugs with it, buy a peice of hole Don't tell me, I don't wanna know You need to come up with a better plan The Devil smash metal weapons like glass Right now we out-matched and out-classed We have to stay on a spiritual path 'Cause in the absence of love we blastin' one another with blood Media shows up to capture the buzz I'm a child of God and a rapper from the gutter I'm six of one and half a dozen of the other This is not one of those 'I told you so' moments This is just Canibus being open Lower egoic minds brush aside But can't nullify the high science that is coming from the rhymes I couldn't believe it the day that I was told That every person alive does not have a soul And is not in control of these cotton pickin' bowls Politicians declare the war of attrition on the globe And stole all the fishin' holes Grandma got the chitlins on the stove, That'll overload the senses in your nose Young folk can't even afford to get old How many Youtube views before you go gold? How many albums last week you sold? How many leak downloads? Oh, you still believe in Soundscan, bro? Don't be discouraged Write and produce and record and you love it This is your Art, and thats the point of it When you get paid from it, things change people behave stubborn And say rude things to judge it They want you to thug it, so they can have you like a test subject Handcuffed and take mug shots of it I told you before I'm nobodies spit puppet I say what I want, you take what you want from it This is a social experiment put on by the public Hip Hop is completely corrupted You ain't rappin' 'bout that, you meat diet, eat and be quiet Recycle the fire and deep fry it That line is hot, but you said it before, you get a C-My shit is timeless like the Great Wall of China Sick in the biggest way like a dinosaur virus Spreadin' through Verizon Wireless Homeland Securities tryin' it, just to see if you lyin' Bis They step to me, never thought it would happen like this You a flight risk, we need that microphone back Bis Diversionary tactics, Magik prison planet, God damnit We don't care what you're fans think 'Cause 99 percent of all of the don't exist The observer changes the properties of the observed This is done with your mind, not with your words Word?

Yeah, I'm about to show you nerds You book worms really startin' to get on my nerves I can't talk like you, but I can understand you I know what this entire ordeal can expand to I love Hip Hop, I've always been a fan too I'm a big fan of everything you do I appreciate the purchases, the online searches I hope you enjoy the verses, it was great to be of service This was always my purpose I'm always workin' to be a better person everyday And still growin' like the Earth is Peace to the Gods and the Earths, kid
