1st Verse:

Make it a point to stay close with friends cause maybe they'll need you and you'll need just them so throw out your grudges they'll just hold you back from making true judgements of feelings you lack

Chorus:

So I'll hold on to pictures and postcards of you and use them to mend my heart and this will start the transformation of peace by piece broken love each and everyone by one the war is won (peace by piece at the end of song)

2nd Verse:

Yesterday I came across a letter by you from a battle you lost it started by stating your love for this guy that you had been dating now quite for some time is it fact or a fiction this story I read 'cause the further predictions(you've painted descriptions) (seem hard to believe) depicting a scene hard to believe
