1st Verse:

As I gaze into the sky I'm searching for a sign but what do I see? A falling star like you and me

Chorus:

You'll say remember the days we were friends and I'll say forgot all the times we once had (2nd chorus add this to end of chorus->So I'll pinch myself to make sure this is real is this the last time I'd feel?; you say I'm still here)

2nd Verse:

Watching over me angels whisper sweet nothings into my ear we'll play it by year and I'm shivering like it's so cold but the size of your heart keeps me warm and these dull needles piercing my neck are reminding me that you are near you're still here
