"The Lost Cause"

Visit "The Lost Cause" on MotoLyrics.com

1st Verse:

Hold on maybe you can help me to try to (and)
understand why you are so afraid to(of) change

Pre-Chorus:

What goes on in your mind will I ever find someone who is found inside the cause is lost but one more time (there's something more than what is seen I'm fighting a losing battle and nobody can figure you out except for me I wish you were harder to read)

Chorus:

Hold me now wash away those tears hold me now let go of your fears(2x the 2nd chorus)

2nd Verse:

Hold still don't wait for me to catch up cause I can feel you and your cover is blown just like the wind maybe this is the wrong time to indulge in someone else's life but why don't you leave your past behind

Ending:

Hold me now I won't let go->4x
