I feel very strange there's evidence of a radical change
Could I be falling in love?

I see through a port new moons high above
Or is it just your intoxicating love?

My heart's a flaming fire the moment you appear

I have just one desire to have and hold you near
I've tried to resist the strange mystery of
The need for your kiss could I be falling in love

I have just one desire to have and hold you near
I've tried to resist the strange mystery of
The need for your kiss could I be falling in love

Could I be falling in love?
Could I be falling in love?
