Each beat of my heart tells me I love you
Each night and day while we're apart
No matter how far away you may wonder
I'll always love you with each beat of my heart.

Each beat of my heart tell me that someday
You will return and we'll make a new start
Should I find fun with one of my old loves
Or should I believe each beat of my heart.

--- Instrumental ---

Each beat of my heart tells me I love you
Each night and day while we're apart
No matter how far away you may wonder
I'll always love you with each beat of my heart

Each beat of my heart tell me that someday
You will return and we'll make a new start
Should I find fun with one of my old loves
Or should I believe each beat of my heart...
