Just because the moon is bright and no sign he's watching us tonight
Let me hold your hand may be love you just a little
The moon just went behind a cloud and I won't whisper very loud
Let me whisper in your ear maybe love you just a little Some folks talk against romance and say we shouldn't do it Don't you pay no attention to what they say you know there ain't nothing to it Love's what makes the world go round and you're the roundest thing I've found
Let me hold your hand maybe love you just a little [fiddle - steel - piano]

Just because the moon is bright...
