Overnight, overnight, overnight, overnight, overnight

I met you on the Sunday night by that Monday morning Overnight, although I wondered Overnight, what's wrong with me Overnight, love walked right in and shook me like a tree

Oh, I sat down when I got home and gave my heart a warnin'
Overnight, I dreamed about you Overnight, while count the sheep
Overnight, I felt for you so hard I couldn't sleep

All night long I wished you were my own
And when I came to I was huggin' you like a hound dog hugs a bone
All night long my heart was standing still
And when I got up I pitched myself to see if this was real

Then you came by and told me dear the same sweet
Monday morning
Overnight, you dreamed about me
Overnight, you loved me too Overnight, we found the dream that really did come true

All night long I wished you were my own
When I came to I was huggin' you like a hound dog
hugs a bone
And when I got up I pitched myself to see if this was

Then you came by and told me dear the same sweet
Monday morning
Overnight, you dreamed about me
Overnight, you loved me too
Overnight, we found the dream that really did come
true
Really did come true, that really did come true

Overnight, overnight, overnight, overnight, overnight
