Please leave my darling alone
She's the only love I have known
Go find someone else I want her for myself
So please leave my darling alone

Down deep she wants to be true
But like a child with a toy bright and new
The fascination is there and she might learn to care
Then she'd trade the old for the new

So please leave my darling alone
Without her I just can't go on
She was never untrue until she met you
Now please leave my darling alone
