Here's a love song we'd like to do for you now.
One we did before but one we've a sorta takin'
A liking to it's called it's a wind-up.

(Sang)

Can this be the wind-up
You don't seem the same
Can this be the wind-up
Have I been to blame
Have you made your mind up
My heart wants to know
Can this be the wind-up
When I love you so?

How my heart would cry
If we said goodbye
Don't you know how much
I'll always love you
Won't you think it over
Let your heart count again
And maybe we'll end up
Being sweethearts again.

--- Instrumental ---

How my heart would cry
If we said goodbye
Don't you know how much
I'll always love you
Won't you think it over
Let your heart count again
And maybe we'll end up
Being sweethearts again.

Sort of a pretty love song there.
Thank you very much...
