You'll never be mine again
Guess I've known it since don't know when
I've just been pretending I know I can't win
Let me hold you just one more time
And pretend that your world is mine

We'll whisper goodbye
And then you'll never be mine again
Someone else will know the thrill of holding you
And sharing all those little things we used to do

So give me your sweetest smile
And let me just dream a while
Then my world will come to an
End you'll never be mine again
Someone else will know
