Devils' tools not hammer, nor nails. Everyone loving feels unnamed fears. Call them hummingbirds, 'cause the real words no one can say...hey-hey-hey...It's not why I'm here, it's who I'm with. From baby's breath to the rattle of death...I seek the love that never fails. I seek the love...the love that never fails. Oh, beautiful world! I won't go there. There ain't no room for dreamers in heaven. Silver linings seldom appear--- except in horrible storms. See, it's not why I'm here, it's who I'm with. From baby's breath to the Angel of Death I seek the love that never fails. I seek the love...the love that never fails. Now hope's a tricky...a tricky little snare. I'm stuck on the corner of "Confused & I Don't Know". Been waiting for that long, long, long, long overdue ride home. See it's not why I'm here, it's who I'm with. From baby's breath 'till the final kiss of death. I seek the love that never fails. I seek the love...the love that never fails. Jesus and the fiery furnace. Devil and the deep blue sea. God was drunk when he made me, but that's okay, 'cause I forgive him.
