So what if you disagree?
And your view isn't eye to eye
No need to shout her down
Don't let disparaging words fly

So what if you think she's wrong
And your anger wells up inside
She's left and you're quite right
All those passions you cannot hide

CHORUS:

You've got to treat her with kindness
You've got to treat her with respect
You've got to treat her with dignity
Because you never know
When you might be talking to an angel

So what if she's not your type?
Her look not commercial grade
Her style not Hollywood
You know that beauty will always fade
So what if you disagree?
And your view isn't eye to eye
No need to put her down
Don't let disparaging words fly

BRIDGE:

What you do to the least of these
You also do unto me
Jesus said
What you do to the least of these
You also do unto me

Because you never know
When you might be talking to an angel
Because you never know
When you might be talking to an angel

END:

You don't know
You won't know
Who might be an angel
