Evilution is a mystery, Full of Sin that no one sees-
God makes a fool of you and me.
Devil inside me slowly grows-
SATAN is the only one that I know-
Hell becomes a place for me.

I see the lies in the sand-
Evil Devil, that's who I am.
Looking back to see the Pentagram,
In Evilution, Evilution.

The Earth slowly begins to change,
Devil begins his evil reign,
People take God's name in vain.
Devil possesses evil beings,
God just cannot conceive-
He is unforgiven, unforseen.

I see the hate in all of man-
God cannot control-he is banned
People are condemned and forever damned-
In Evilution, Evilution.
