People, people here me go
You know what it means to be left alone?
Yeah, people hear me people
Do you know what it means to be left alone?
Not even love to call their own
Not even love you can call your own

Understandin', understandin'
Lord that's all in the world I need
Understandin' and a little bit of lovin' baby
That's all in the world I need
Misunderstandin' an' I know get a woman
Yeah, Lord they both have caused my heart to bleed

Every mornin'
I can hear out of my window
The blues come winnin'
I can hear the blues call my name, baby
Every mornin', every mornin', every mornin'
You can hear the willows weep and mourn for me
Lord now, every mornin'
You can hear the willows weep and mourn for me

My little girl has left me, yeah
That's what caused my heart to bleed
That's all it caused my heart to bleed
Bleeding heart
Lord, that's too bad I gotta call
Lord, Lord, Lord

Please come back home to me baby
Please come back home to me baby
Please come back home to me baby
