"Three Little Bears"

"Ha Ha Ha", says Mama Bear as she irons Daddy's holey underwear
and "Hee Hee Hee", says Daddy bear as Junior pours honey
all on sister hair Anyway you know they live happily ever after

Well, "Ho ho ho" say the little fish as the sad fisherman goes home without a hitch But "Hee hee hee" says the fisherman with his lady burning french fries in the frying pan (This is so silly man)

"Hee hee hee" says you to me (Man I don't feel like going through with this, this is really silly)
Oh man, I wanna die
'cause walking around on the ground is really cramping my high
I sure don't wanna live without you forever after, no.

Now what does all this have to do with the three little bears?
Well, I was just feeling blue, 'cause I really care That you're still gone from me and I'm as sad as I can be So I'll sing and play this tune until you come back home to me
