See the world trough shattered glass
It's never good until it's bad
Come on you're dancing with the ghosts from the past
Â
You're running in the same old same
Cursing love and placing blame
Come on you're winning at a loosing game

You better stop those wheels from turning 'round
You ain't got nothing to loose

So stand up, stand up believing
Give up, give up the grieving
Everybody's got a broken heart
Get back, get back the feeling
Keep on and find a new meaning
Everybody's got a broken heart
Better start dreaming

I have walked that same old track
I have been to hell and back
It's true I was going nowhere fast

It can hurt to break those chains
Don't look back just walk away
One day you'll be laughing through the falling rain

You better stop those wheels from turning 'round
You ain't got nothing to loose

Chorus:

It's OK to fall we all do that sometimes
Don't get stuck down there get up again and try
