Descend upon the village on a mission of death
Setting fire to their homes, attacking the men
We hear their women screaming as we hack off their heads
We show no fucking mercy to them, they will be annihilated

Targeting their necks, a ruthless slaughter begins
Our axes swing with malice, blood drips from the blades
Utterly defeated, their forces put to rout
Our legions will pursue them until they have been eradicated

Burn, torch their village
Burn, reduce their feeble world to ash
Hack, chop their heads off
Hack, leave their headless bodies rotting

Burn, torch their village
Burn, reduce their feeble world to ash
Hack, chop their heads off
Hack, leave their headless bodies rotting

Massacre, slay them all
Fire consumes their world
Massacre, they will die
Fire consumes their world
Fire consumes their world

Their women have been raped
Their children are in chains
Defenses have been broken
Our conquest is complete

Take their leader captive, march him to the square
His weaknesses exploited now we take his life
Demoralize the captives, their leader died on his knees
His severed head a trophy, his body feeds the pigs

Burn, torch their village
Burn, reduce their feeble world to ash

Hack, chop their heads off
Hack, leave their headless bodies rotting

Burn, torch their village
Burn, reduce their feeble world to ash
Hack, chop their heads off
Hack, leave their headless bodies rotting

Heads are falling, corpses burn
We are coming, we bring death
