Undead feast, as they tear upon your weak flesh
Terror builds, as the thought of being dead
Prophecy of the wise men of old
Now comes true, as the corpses break the soil
Ancient spell breaks the sleep of the dead
The dead awake, what the populace is fearing Panic strikes as the nations run in fear Oceans boil with blood of human victims Suicide, the only way to avoid being eaten by the undead
Grave yards coming alive with zombies, hungry
for living flesh
Psychotic, transmuted corpses, upsurging the population
Sickening disaster of epidemic proportions, devouring us
Tables turn as a victim I've become now
State of death only waiting to return
Vital signs that show I'm dead
This can't happen, I'm rising from my own grave Hunger grows not nutritional but instinctual
Flesh becomes my only crave of this live Unthinking state, a state of metamorphosis
Seeking food to keep me dead Degenerate, a product of man's frustration for his error
Insatiable hunger for mankind, building with each kill Seeking human victims to meet my fill Cannibal I've become, what's happened to my brain
Feast on the corpse, suck out his brain
As its fluids drip down the drain
Chew on the bones, drink from its bladder
The vile stench only makes me madder
In through the mouth, out the forehead
Brains fall out, skin turns red Violent surge, a spear through the skull Felt the urge, now my heart's full
I crave gore, I'll eat your guts
I love gore, blood drives me nuts
I drink blood, I don't like water

Intestines my cud, I feast in the slaughter Twist its neck, make it crack Suicide, the only way to avoid being eaten by
the undead
Grave yards coming alive with zombies, hungry
for living flesh
Psychotic, transmuted corpses, upsurging the
Sickening disaster of epidemic proportions,
devouring us
Blood I want to drink, I want to suck
Brains I want to eat, the rest I'll chuck Bones into a spear, I'll carve and kill Hunger for the quest, I'll never fill
I crave gore, I'll eat your guts
