Tell me now that you know how
To greet the dawn each day
Fearless and unfettered, stand
Before the sun and pray

There's no controversy
Let silence judge your plea
For justice or for mercy
They both will set you free

It's a braver, newer world you've found
Rolling 'round and 'round and 'round and 'round
It's a braver, newer world you've found

Show me know, you know how
To play the winning game
Laughing 'til the sky stands still
With neither praise nor blame

There's still time for Heaven
Though we're already there
The daily bread will leaven
All hope, all pain, all care

It's a braver, newer world you've found
Rolling 'round and 'round and 'round and 'round
It's a braver, newer world you've found

Teach me now that you know how
To learn the learner's art
Open with the master's myth
And play with all your heart

Listen to your singing
Love will be your voice
The gift that you are bringing
Is all for all your choice

It's a braver, newer world you've found
Rolling 'round and 'round and 'round and 'round
It's a braver, newer world you've found
Rolling 'round and 'round and 'round and 'round

It's a braver, newer world you've found
