Far to many miles between me and mind mountains
Passion is not drowning in these suburban seas
Everybody has a path for the taking
Everybody has a cure for your disease
Stand up then kneel then sit down
Stand up then kneel then sit down
Stand up then kneel then sit down
Stand up then kneel then sit down

Would do me best if i just keep walking
I do my best to keep from stepping on the mines
Would do me best if i could just keep walking
I do my best to keep stepping on the mines

Far to many miles between me and mind mountains
Passion is not drowning in these suburban seas
Everybody has a path for the taking
Everybody has a killer for your disease
Stand up then kneel then sit down
Stand up then kneel then sit down
Stand up then kneel then sit down
Stand up then kneel then sit down

Would do me best if i just keep walking
I do my best to keep from stepping on the mines
Would do me best if i could just keep walking
I do my best to keep from stepping on the mines

And she says
Which way
Well i don't know
I might beat a path if i knew where to go
My confidence is not measured in
Knowing where you are
Cause i'm lost again

And it would do me best if i just keep walking
I do my best to keep from stepping on the mines
Would it do me best if i could just keep walking
I do my best to keep from stepping on the mines

Which way
Well i don't know
I might beat a path if i knew where to go
My confidence is not measured in
Knowing where you are
Cause i'm lost again

I guess one day
I'll find my route
Don't hate to say that I don't know what im waiting for
But i'm confident
And i'm confident
And i'm confident
That i'm lost again
I'm confident
Yes i'm confident
That i'm lost again
