beyond my wild dreams
you put to silence thousands screaming still waiting for the day when you'll discover there's no discovering without with in
in doubt
re-begin
to swing low
or hold strong
did we miss
where we belong

and i'm ready for the changes
to come
a collection of the parts we play that make up our sum
and i'm ready for the mystery to never unfold
and i'm ready for the winter

but it's still cold
it's still cold
it's still cold
it's still cold

and i'm ready for the mystery to never unfold

yah i'm ready
i want you to know that i'm ready yah i'm ready for the changes and i'm ready

lord knows i'm ready
just want you to know that i'm ready
