Where have they gone
All the summers we knew
When we owned the sand
And a gentle wave or two

Where have they gone
All the winters we shared
When you used to kiss
All the snowflakes from my hair

Where is the song
Our hearts used to sing
Like the sound of a symphony
Like the breathless touch of spring

Where have they gone
(Memories of you)
All the vows that we made
(Cherished days gone by)
Was true love always
Only meant for yesterday

Where is the song
Where is the song
Our hearts used to sing
Like the sound of a symphony
Like the breathless touch of spring

Where have they gone
(When we were young)
All the summers we knew
(Days of love gone by)
When we owned the sand
And a gentle wave or two
