oh oh.. ooo ohh.. i crave

i wake up to shadows touching your pillow looking for a trace of your smile and that's when it hit me you're no longer with me in fact, it's been quite awhile since i sat here drinking coffee as you sipped your tea and you swore you'd always love and always care for me and even though there's no more us to save ~ it's you i crave

~chorus~

i crave your touch
i crave your lips
i miss so much
the excitement of your kiss
and since you're gone
my heart won't behave
it's your love that i still crave

it may look like i'm happy but people who know me they know that i'm not doing so well i heard you've been dating and though ive been waiting how you've found you with no one else and just the thought of never waking up with you again always turned me inside out how could we let it end

~chorus~

~breakdown~
i should have known i should have seen cuz you were always there inside my every dream ohh

~chanting~

~ repeat chorus till end ~ i crave, i miss so much your kiss gone, behave i crave, i'm craving for you baby wooh i can't sleep, ohh ohh ohh my heart won't behave, oh i crave you baby, everyday im craving for you
