Nothing can tear you apart
If you keep livin' straight from the heart
Though you know that you're gonna hurt some
The magic will come

When you keep livin' straight from the heart
You will know when to stop and to start
Once you see that no one really wins
Then the magic begins

Bring back the magic
Don't make life so tragic
Bring back the magic
Don't make life so tragic

Beach combers ride, oh, children lost in the tide
Times never at their command
Waves melt all castles of sand
Melt all castles of sand

Bring back the magic
Don't make life so tragic
Bring back the magic
Don't make life so tragic

Red sky at night, oh, such a sailor's delight
Red sky at dawn
Ohh, gypsy song's comin' on
Gypsy song's comin' on, song's comin' on

Nothin' can tear you apart
When you keep livin' straight from the heart
Though you know that you're gonna hurt some
The magic will come

If you keep livin' straight from the heart
You will know when to stop and to start
Once you see that no one really wins
The magic begins

Bring back the magic
Don't make life so tragic

Bring back the magic
Don't make life so tragic

Bring back the magic
Don't make life so tragic
Bring back the magic
Don't make life so tragic

You've got to bring back
Bring back, bring back the magic
Bring back, bring back
Bring back the magic

Bring back, bring back
Bring back the magic
Bring back, bring back
