Fool button

By: jimmy buffett

1978

I woke up in a strange room

I'd never seen before

Weird paintin's on the walls

Mirrors on the ceiling

I bolted for the door

Lookin' for my rentacar

Was the cordoba blue or red

Tryin' to remember where I put the keys

Tryin' to remember what I said

Chorus:

I pushed the fool button

My night went haywire

I pushed the fool button

Set my brain on fire

Now I was sittin' in the corner of a very laid back bar

A little three piece band playin' on the stand

Not knowin' what lay in store

In a flash a man with a hat and a harmonica stormed the stage

The crowd went berserk, the band said what a jerk

As he went into a blues rampage

Chorus:

It was a fool palace

Double knit on parade

They pushed the fool button

As the skinny boy played and played

Push it, push it, push it

Try to make a point of protectin' the innocent

But none of them can be found

It can happen anytime

Happen anyplace

It can happen in your own home town

If you don't believe my words
Or think my story's true
Get a bottle of rum and a eskatrol
And watch the same thing happen to you

Chorus:

We'll push the fool button
I'll meet you in the bar
We'll push the fool button
Where everyone's a star

(jimmy pushed the fool button)
(he pushed it like a fool, bubba)
(pushin' like a fool)
(pushed the button like a fool)

(pushed the fool button)
(pushed it like a fool)
(pushed the button like a fool)
