Mysterious lost weekend in a land where time stands still Where people fall in love again just for one more thrill My girl and I went walking by the Caribbean sea Someone snorkled by raised her head up high And my girl said who's she?

[Chorus]

Pre you a friend of mine who's old not new Pre you she's just another girl that I once knew A pleasant smile a pretty face Another time another place
Pre you what's a guy supposed to do?

We'll blame it on the weather and the stars that shine above For bringing us together and filling us with love So don't you fret my lady,
'cause what we have is strong Let her swim away out into the bay your place is here with me

She's pre you just a friend
so don't be blue
Pre you she's only yesterday
just passing through Another page in history
a stepping stone for you and me
Pre you what's a guy supposed to do?

[Instrumental]

Long ago we were close but the fire went out She's a tease can't you tell that's what she's all about Like an old brokenclock on the wall she's got nothing to say She was long ago she's so yesterday

She's pre you just a friend
so don't be blue
Pre you she's only yesterday
just passing through
Another page in history
a stepping stone for you and me
Pre you what's a guy supposed to do?
