Rancho Deluxe End Title

By: Jimmy Buffett

1975

Cold blue morning, the game is done
Nobody lost and nobody won
So shuffle the cards up, play it again
Really don't matter, if we lose or still win

Yeah we gotta try and find a way

Bouncin' around the mountains day to day

Oh crazy mountain, they named you well
White men and red men, stories that we heard tell
You're so mellow from your timber wine
>From your sweet grass foothills, to your timberline

Ah yeah we gotta try and find a way
Gonna laugh, we're gonna drink, we're gonna play
Oh bouncin' around the mountains day to day
