You messed up you read the paper
You accidentally watched the news
You inadvertently find yourself in the vicinity of the blues

Bust your ass to get a good life
You make a habit out of overtime
When the big report card comes
Your priorities are way out of line

Chorus:

You need to go to summer school
Into the beach or at least in a pool
Time to go to summer school
Remember what is and what is not cool

Time out for bad behavior
Time off you've been under the gun
High time somebody told you
It's time to let those puppies run

What's up with this recession?
I refuse to participate
The answer to your burning questions
Are dancing on your tailgate
It's time to go to summer school
Remember what is and is not cool
Oh summer school
There's a time and a place to act like a fool
At summer school
Get your ass to a beach or at least to a pool
At summer school
Remember what is and what is not cool

Here's the subjects:

Beer 101.

Sex 102.

Tune it in turn it out

That's what I'm talking about

It's time to go to summer school
Yeah the courses are easy and there are no rules

At summer school
Remember what is and what is not cool
You need to stay in summer school
This is the time and the place to act like a fool
Oh summer school
Remember what is and what is not cool
