We were so happy when love lingered on back in our sweet used to be But now it's all over and you were gone leaving a sad memory
And there's tears on my pillow each morning I cry when I dream about you
When I should be sleeping I just lay there weeping wondering if you're weeping too I'm trying so hard to forget you but that's not so easy to do
With these tears on my pillow each morning tears that I've shed over you Tears on my pillow each morning...
(Tears on my pillow)
