Yo the NY City got a nigga feelin' shitty Tryin' to make it through the struggle Niggas bubble in the jungle selling crack by the bundles
Yo these raps might hunt you like a cat in the jungle Spittin' lines off the humble

Make your whole team crumble, what the fuck made you fumble?
In these streets where they fuck you like the face of a demon
I repent every evening, trapped in the Eden, starvin', never eatin'
Yo I stay bleedin', while you jakes stay tryin' to take freedom
I'm like just a brother tryin' break even

Movin' through these odd days watchin' every snake breathin'
Ready to deface the [Incomprehensible] at night I'm just tryin' to reshape the meaning of life, flowing on mics
Blowing you types off of the earth, livin' it worse, holdin' our life
Ready to burst on the first thinking he got it Yo, the apple stays rotten

Stress rap, this applies to where we rest at NY City full with nothing but stressed cats
That wanna test that flame of yours, but not ready
When we aim, the war's absolute retaliation against all,
all for real
(Starvin' Harlem)

Yo, yo, Elohim, with the rhyme scheme and when the lyrics
Leave the mouth they look like light beams with wings
Attached to mic I say fly rhymes read between the lines Aire Vast lines, the beat be tryin' to sex me and marry me
I'm talking white picket fence and a family of Vasts
They stand behind me, and reflect reality

Stage one- master of ceremonies and when the Seven magnificent walked in raisin' hell to lower heaven

We explored all the crevices, brothers is mad I wear knowledge like a third degree, burn, light the match

Put it to the rhyme book, make sure it all fits in the urn
The cream of life, beats and rhymes are butter that in which I churn

Stupid, you could say these masculine thoughts are homosexual

'Cause they blow heads like that dead clothes designer
All men were created equal, Emcees are uneven Ask blind man Steven if he's even seen how the sunset looks

That's something you couldn't feel with a braille book

I'm hear to smack your ear drum long, so hum along Let's communicate with rhythm, tell 'em to come along You'll get smacked right in the kisser like Jackie Gleason

And watch sun, set it off like light decreasing, oh shit Watch sun set it off like light decreasing

Stress rap, this applies to where we rest at
NY City full with nothing but stressed cats
That wanna test that flame of yours, but not ready
When we aim, the war's absolute retaliation against all,
all for real

What's going on? Everything going wrong in the ghetto Cops Desert Storm on blocks lettin' off and they gettin' Off on the ease on the corner D's hop out of unmarked V's and squeeze 'till we on our knees, we po' on ice Put us in the freeze on the streets of bloody beasts, hoodies and fiends

I stay muddy in a sleaze with Oz's, breathin' through the vein cold
Got my whole frame froze tryin' to escape hold twist off the L
They got ice in my grill and I'm dirty and all I need is for them
To unlawfully search me, throw me in a cell, seven thirty
With thoughts hurtin', searchin' for freedom, we tryin' to get it
And we stay bleedin' hear that, one time I'll scream phoenix

Yo, it's the starvin', happy Harlem, rap magician Chained underwater, in sixty seconds the body's missing
Snake in the grass at six feet you can hear him hissin'
I got a problem with your mouth, so I don't listen Stress rap, you got one, I got five You do yours, I do mine, but I'm still alive

They used to call me crazy Joe, had a bazooka
Now they can call me Batman, beyond your maneuvers

Shit, I'm Atoms Fam to the bone marrow Fuck a soul, even God knows this body is hollow
You love New York, but New York don't love you You're just a toy with Lucille Ball's hairdo

On the mic it's all magic and I got short sleeves
And I'm just that nice, I might let you breathe Put a mic in front of me, and I'm gonna bless it Hummingbird style, seventy times in one second
Hummingbird style, seventy times in one second

Stress rap, this applies to where we rest at
NY City full with nothing but stressed cats
That wanna test that flame of yours, but not ready
When we aim, the war's absolute retaliation against all,
all for real
