Don't your conscience ever bother you everytime you hear my name Well you should go somewhere hide your face and hang your head in shame
Yes someone came along and took my place and you
gave me all the blame You should go somewhere and hide your little face and hang your head in shame
[ fiddle ]
gave me all the blame
Oh you should go somewhere and hide your little face and hang your head in shame
