I got a little bit of everything I need
A dollar in my pocket, shoes on my feet
My britches my be patched but they're always neat
I'm the good Lord's Happy Child.

Oh, I've got a woman that's the very best
She'll love me 'til it's time for them to lay me to rest
I'm about the richest man in town, I guess
I'm the good Lord's Happy Child.

Chorus:

I've got the risin' sun in the mornin'
The moon and stars that shine at night
A little baby boy to keep me smilin'
And the good Lord to help me raise him right.

Oh, I've got red beans on my plate
I don't owe nobody so my bills are paid
My mamie(mama) always said "Now, that's the way to stay."
I'm the good Lord's Happy Child.
