(Once a day every day all day long)
When I found somebody new I thought I never would Forget you for then I thought I never could But time has taken all the pain away until now I'm down to hurtin' once a day Once a day all day long and once a night from dusk till dawn
The only time I wish you weren't gone is once a day every day all day long

I'm so glad that I'm not like a guy I knew one time
He lost the one he loved then slowly lost his mind
He sat around and cried his life away lucky me I'm only crying once a day

Once a day all day long...
Once a day all day long
