"Carry You"

When I know I'm all alone
I say your name slowly
And I know that I'm alone
But I'll carry you

Does it feel good like a memory
When you try some history
It's a dream to come around
The rule doesn't bend,
Because the taste doesn't taste the same again

It's easy feeling righteous when removed
All you'll get as what you wanna hear
It hurts because it should
How else am I to make it clear?

I could never be the one that you want
Don't ask.
Well, here's to living in the moment
'Cause it passed

Maybe your lie is what I need sometimes
You told the most and best of anyone
You said to keep me in your pocket
So I carried you

You better choose your words carefully
Because I'm not your anything
Gonna stay here in my place
And you'll stay in yours
Because you're only good as what you're good for

I pace around the room to spend the time
Waiting while the burning pictures fade

Want a thing to make you mine
And another to say it's me

I could never be the one that you want
Don't ask
Well, here's to living in the moment
'Cause it passed, it passed

I'm still carrying a little hope that
Maybe things could be different now
Is that so wrong, is that so wrong, is that so wrong?

Would I see you tonight
At a place we go?
(Could going through the motions
Make for real emotion?)
I wanna make things right
Before time runs out
(It was like you said,
That taste don't taste like it should)
Roll down the windows
Like you know they're coming
Slap my face just to feel, to feel you somehow again

I could never be the one that you want
Don't ask
Well, here's to living in the moment
'Cause it passed

I could never be the one that you want
Don't ask.
Yeah, here's to living in the moment
'Cause it passed, it passed
'Cause it passed, passed, it passed
