Episode four leads us away from here
Don't expect to find here what you are looking to
I can see the light leading away from you Let's disappear, we'll take a trip of no return to outer space
And swim in pools which keep us warm
Cleaned off the sand from off your feet

We'll dance off time to the songs we've never liked
And sing off key thinking it sounds all right
And you know I almost lost my will to live
We're sure, you tell time in your

Episode four leads us away from here
Don't expect to find here what you are looking to Let's disappear, both take a trip of no return to outer space
And swim in pools which keep us warm
Cleaned off the sand from off your feet

We'll dance off time to the songs we've never liked
And sing off key thinking it sounds all right
And you know I almost lost my will to live
We'll show and tell time one more time
And you know I almost lost my will to live
We'll show and tell time to your friends
