"The Most Beautiful Things"

You say the most beautiful things,
an endless list of treasures of trimmings.
It takes all my faith just to start
I don't care now how much I'm wrong

Show us all what grace can mean,
all of what I might be.
Close your eyes call it escape.
We'll run away from everything

My song it shames your ears
every sentence a failure.
Slant rhyme is all I can give and half truth is all I'll get.

Show us all what grace can mean,
all of what I might be.
Close your eyes call it escape.
We'll run away from everything

Uoooooooooooo Uoooooooooooo Uoooooooo
Uoooooooooooo Uoooooooooooo Uoooooooo

Show us all what grace can mean,
all of what I might be.
Close your eyes call it escape.
We'll run away from everything
We'll run away from everything.
We'll run away from everything.
