If you swing to and fro
Let your inhibitions go
They're crippling and useless

I'll be your enemy
If that's what you want me to be
Yeah that will do nicely

I know this world's got the measure of me
And I know...but I'm not quite as sure as I should be

Life's such an irritant
For a picture of innocence like me
Now what do you take me for
And so much is waiting
All waiting for me
My guaranteed cemetery

I know this world's got the measure of me
And I know...but I'm not quite as sure as I should be Sure as I should be, sure as I should be
