I cling to the veil to no avail without fail
Reaching for the God of Israel in man's jail Wailing on my knees and hands to draw the curtain and stand
Thank God for bloody feet and pierced hands

I am new
I am new
And all He says of me is true
I am new

I hold to the law to stop the fall
To drop the ball to fix it all
Falling on my hands and knees if these walls could talk they'd scream
Release him, O God release me

I am new
I am new
And all He says of me is true
I am new

I lay by the grave to save to un-enslave
To make a rich man out of a nave but you saved me
O Jesus You raised me
How could I ever return
To things that You told me would burn
When will I ever learn

That I
I am new
I am new
And all He says of me is true
I am new
