Last night I dreamed that I was sneaking up on Babylon
I awoke to find it was the very street Iâ€™m on I close my eyes but what I see wonâ€™t go away
Away
The city closed the shelter down the street Weâ€™d rather pay to save a tree than give our brother something warm to eat
It breaks my heart that weâ€™re so incomplete, yeah, oh
Maybe thereâ€™s a reason for it But itâ€™s so hard to see
So many broken people
Living in this lonely city
When it feels right to give up I get up and realize Your blood can cover all these stains

And You donâ€™t ever miss a thing
No, no You don't ever miss a thing
I catch the news on channel 3 about once a week
But you see so much more
You see the husband flee the scene
You hear the woman hit the floor Crying out, â€œCan You still save me, Lord?â€
You see it all â€™cause there is nothing You canâ€™t see And You can free us all â€™cause there is nothing You canâ€™t free
And even when we fall You come and meet us at our knees
You donâ€™t ever miss a thing, no
