Yeah, yeah, yeah, better believe what I said
Yeah, yeah, yeah, better believe what I said
If you don't straighten' up baby, honey, I'm goin' upside your head

Yeah, you went out last night, baby
And the night before
Tellin' you right now, baby
I ain't gonna take it no more

You better hear me baby
You better believe what I said
If you don't straighten' up, baby
Honey, I'm goin' upside your head

Think you so smart, baby
Mens all call you fine
You better have them to know, baby
You're mine all mine

You better hear me, baby
Now, believe what I said
Hear me, believe me, baby
'Cause I'm goin' upside your head

I bought you a Coupe baby,
Cost ninety-nine, ninety-nine
Now ya wanna mistreat me, baby
And stay gone all the time

You better hear me, baby
Better believe what I said
If you don't straighten' up baby
Goin' upside your head
