[Verse 1]

sometimes this feeling haunts me, never leaves me alone
it leaves me shaking, trembling, fighting what i'm told it leaves me questioning what is true about me and you and as i watch the sunrise for the last time i think of you

[Chorus]

and all we were, all were all we could have been, me and her all we had, all we had now i see it's not coming back

[Verse 2]

alone
you

[Chorus]

[Bridge] (guitar solo thing?)

[Chorus]
