You asked me a question,
What's on my mind I'll tell you it's nothing
And that I feel fine but really it's you that pours over me everyday,
Everyday,
So don't go changing your ways cause your perfect
Yes it's true I want to be everything to you,
I'm giving you all my love as proof,
I wanna be everything and turn our world into something,
Let me be everything
Everything to you,
With a war every second it's easy to fade with every word as a weapon,
But it's safe to say it's really you that keeps me alive,
All the time, all the time
So don't go changing your smile cause it's perfect yes it's true
Yes it's true I want to be everything to you,
I'm giving you all my love as proof,
I wanna be everything and turn our world into
something,
Let me be everything
Everything to you,
We may walkk this Life without trouble someday.
Don't think we wont get over it all.
Cause we are in love.
Everything to you,
I'm giving you all my love as proof,
I wanna be everything and turn our world into
something,
Let me be everything
Everything to you,
I want to be everything to you,
I'm giving you all my love as proof,
I wanna be everything and turn our world into
something,
Let me be everything
Everything to you.
