[Verse 1]

can you breathe the air that's telling me that it's winter
can you feel the finger tips of sky showing me i can't forget her
do you try to get up when i'm gone, do you feel like everything is wrong.
you're empty without me
do you try to breathe the words you hate, tell yourself
it's better off this way
i'm hopeless without you

[Chorus]

the ashes of what we felt are raining down on to our streets
we cry out for something else, but there's no sound getting past our teeth.

[Verse 2]

can you taste the rain that's telling me the sky is crying
do you know that inside without you i'm dying
everything is wrong

[Chorus]
