your tears are bleeding down, past your cheekbones to the ground and my words aren't enough you've felt this hurt before, you find your comfort past the door
and there's no running this time

[Chorus]

and all that i want for you, is all that's everything you're everything to me

[Verse 2]

the cold october moon, it makes me think of you but my thoughts fall short the stars all shed a tear for every second you're not here
and i can't breathe without you

[Chorus]
