(Art, Verny, Tuxx, Brent)

Already taken, sent to find what we would hope to know, find somebody to help you understand. Its hard to find but there are a few at hand, still remain and still its all insnae, emotional change, its still a bit too soon. Don't tell me how, wait for a new moon.

CHORUS:

It happens all the time, tomorrow could be mine - one day, today, and
tomorrow could make yesterday feel fine.
Oh, tomorrow could make yesterday feel fine.
Walking alone, left to find all the things still left and hope to know.
Ceaseless thoughts don't make it any better, vision your mind as to when you first met her.
Everything remains and still everything's insane. Find a way to make less of laboured pay.
Don't tell me now, I will stop the things you have to say.

CHORUS

Hey, tomorrow could make yesterday feel fine.
Keeping it inside will help your pride, letting it out will give your soul a ride to somewhere new,
somewhere far from here where there's no fear and where you're standing is where you'll find your landing.

CHORUS

You know, tomorrow could make yesterday feel fine, you know, tomorrow could make yesterday feel fine, you know,
tomorrow could make yesterday feel fine.
