To overcome the obstacles was never in my plans,
And when I finally reach out, it all slips through my hands,
I'm sick of all the promises not kept,
Stop trying to take back the time we don't have left.
It's always relentless,
I know I can fix this,
It's only thoughts stuck in my mind,
I don't get that feeling,
You feel bad I'm leaving,
But all that I needed was time.
You break all of my rules,
I shouldn't even consider this,
But deep down inside it all just seems so worth it,
Did you think that I would never ever find out?
Did you think that things would just get better by themselves?
It's always relentless,
I know I can fix this,
It's only thoughts stuck in my mind,
I don't get that feeling,
You feel bad I'm leaving,
All that I needed was time.
Always relentless,
I know I can fix this,
It's only thoughts stuck in my mind,
I don't get that feeling,
You feel bad I'm leaving,
All that I needed was time.
It's always relentless,
I know I can fix this,
It's only thoughts stuck in my mind,
I don't get that feeling,
You feel bad I'm leaving,
All that I needed was time.
It's always relentless,
It's only thoughts stuck in my mind,
I don't get that feeling,
But, all that I needed was time,
And I'll be fine.
